Calamos Investments Announced As a Pensions Age Awards Finalist

Naperville, IL; London, United Kingdom, 06 January 2016 Calamos Investments, a global investment firm offering risk-managed investment strategies, is shortlisted for the Pensions Age Emerging Market Manager of the Year award.

“At Calamos, we employ a risk-managed approach to the emerging market asset class, which we believe is advantageous over the long term and especially in the current environment. Our ability to dampen volatility for our clients while providing exposure to the growth potential of the emerging markets has proved beneficial for investors,” said Nick Niziolek, Co-CIO, Head of Global Equity, Senior Co-Portfolio Manager.

The awards are independently judged, and the winners will be announced at the Pensions Age Awards Gala Dinner & Ceremony on 25 February 2016 at the London Marriott Hotel, Grosvenor Square. The Pensions Age Awards, which come from the team that brings you the hugely successful and prestigious European Pensions Awards and Irish Pensions Awards, will use the same rigorous and transparent judging process to pick the winners across a range of topical and relevant pension scheme and pension provider categories. The awards are free to enter and are open to any UK pension scheme or provider firm that serves pension schemes in the UK.
