CALAMOS® INVESTMENTS

FUND OVERVIEW

The fund invests primarily in a diversified portfolio of U.S. high yield bonds.

KEY FEATURES

- » Emphasis on total return: rather than an exclusive focus on yield, our total return framework enhances our ability to generate alpha and preserve capital over entire credit cycles
- » A disciplined process: utilizes proprietary credit research to identify securities most likely to migrate to investment grade, ahead of a rating agency upgrade
- » Multi-faceted risk management: includes stress testing under various economic assumptions and an emphasis on avoiding securities with a high probability of default and low expected recovery from default losses

PORTFOLIO FIT

The fund can complement investment grade credit exposure, providing attractive income and total return potential for more risk-tolerant investors.

High Yield Outperformed in Rising Interest Rate Environments

CUMULATIVE BOND RETURNS

In periods during which the 10-year Treasury yield rose more than 100 basis points, high yield bonds outperformed investment grade and government bonds

Data as of 12/31/17. Rising rate environment periods from troughs to peak from October 1993 to December 2016.

The indexes shown are not intended as proxies for the Fund's actual performance, and there are significant differences between the Fund and the indexes. Unmanaged index returns assume reinvestment of any and all distributions and, unlike fund returns, do not reflect fees, expenses or sales charges. Investors cannot invest directly in an index. The bonds represented in the above chart have varying price risk, which generally is higher for issuers that are more likely to default. U.S. Treasuries are backed by the U.S. government and have a very low probability of default. U.S. corporate investment grade bonds, represented by the ICE BofAML U.S. Corporate Master Index, are securities that have a higher probability of default than the U.S. government given the higher probability of corporate bankruptcy. High yield bonds, represented by the ICE BofAML U.S. High Yield Master II Index, are issued by corporate issuers that have lower credit ratings than investment-grade issuers and therefore are considered more likely to default.

NOTES

Annualized standard deviation is a statistical measure of the historical volatility of a mutual fund or portfolio, usually computed using 36 monthly returns. Average effective duration provides a measure of the Fund's interest rate sensitivity—the longer a fund's duration, the more sensitive it is to shifts in interest rates. Average effective maturity is the weighted average of the maturities in a portfolio of bonds. Beta is a historic measure of a fund's relative volatility, which is one of the measures of risk; a beta of 0.5 reflects 1/2 the market's volatility as represented by the Fund's primary benchmark, while a beta of 2.0 reflects twice the volatility. Option adjusted spread (OAS) is the yield spread which has to be added to a benchmark yield curve to discount a security's payments to match its market price; uses a dynamic pricing model that accounts for embedded options and is usually measured in basis points. 30-Day SEC yield reflects the dividends and interest earned by the Fund during the 30-day period ended as of the date stated after deducting the Fund's expenses for that same period. Yield-to-worst is the lowest potential yield that can be received on a bond without the issuer actually defaulting. The Bloomberg Barclays U.S. High Yield 2% Issuer Capped Index measures the performance of high yield corporate bonds with a maximum allocation of 2% to any one issuer. The ICE BofAML BB-B U.S. High Yield Constrained Index contains all securities in The ICE BofAML U.S. High Yield Index rated BA1 through B3, based on an average of Moody's, S&P and Fitch, but caps issuer exposure at 2%. Index constituents are capitalization-weighted, based on their current amount outstanding, provided the total allocation to an individual issuer does not exceed 2%. Morningstar High Yield Bond Category represents funds with at least 65% of assets in bonds rated below BBB. 30-Day SEC Yield reflects the dividends and interest earned by the Fund during the 30-day period ended as of the date stated after deducting the Fund's expenses for that same period.
