6 Authorization and Signature

I certify to my current IRA/CESA custodian/trustee that I have established a successor IRA/CESA account to which my assets will be transferred. Please disburse my account in accordance with the instructions set forth in section 5.

Signature

Date (MM/DD/YYYY)

7 Signature Guarantee

A signature guarantee is a method of identity verification that protects against fraud. It can be obtained from a bank, trust company, or other financial institution.

A notary public is not an acceptable guarantor since it does not include financial assurance against fraudulent activity.

You'll need a signature guarantee if the names on your bank account are not the same as those on your Calamos account or if you request the proceeds of your withdrawal be mailed to an address other than that of your address of record.
