Strategy Overview

Calamos Global Opportunities Strategy is a fundamental lower-volatility global equity strategy that invests in common equities and equity-sensitive securities of global companies. The strategy seeks to outperform the MSCI All Country World Index over a full market cycle, with less downside volatility and risk.

Key Differentiators

- » Managing global assets since the 1980s
- » Fundamental research, top-down thematic
- » Capital structure analysis
- » High active share, high conviction
- » Focus on risk-adjusted alpha

Investment Process

The strategy's investment process incorporates top-down, macroeconomic analysis and bottom-up research. Our Investment Committee, Co-CIOs and research professionals provide the broad macroeconomic and thematic framework as well as perspective on global risk factors and investment opportunities. Our research analysts leverage quantitative tools to narrow the opportunity set and conduct fundamental research to value the securities within a company's capital structure. They establish risk and return expectations through cash flow return on investment (CFROI) and discounted cash flow (DCF) analysis. To build higher conviction in investment candidates and holdings, and to stay abreast of industry fundamentals, the investment team travels extensively—meeting with company management, suppliers and competitors. This strategy typically comprises an all-gap, higher-quality and higher-conviction portfolio. Given the broader universe of investment opportunities and the ability to invest across the capital structure, the portfolio holds out-of-benchmark positions, differentiating it from the global equity peer group and benchmark. This advantage should allow the strategy to generate alpha from security selection and top-down positioning.

Past performance does not guarantee or indicate future results. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Portfolios are managed according to their respective strategies which may differ significantly in terms of security holdings, industry weightings, and asset allocation from those of the benchmark(s). Portfolio performance, characteristics and volatility may differ from the benchmark(s) shown.

The results portrayed on the preceding pages are for the Calamos Global Opportunities Composite (inception date: 10/1996). Representative holdings and portfolio characteristics are specific only to the portfolio shown at that point in time. Other portfolios will vary in composition, characteristics, and will experience different investment results. The representative portfolio shown has been selected by the advisor based on account characteristics that the advisor feels accurately represents the investment strategy as a whole.

Returns reflect the Calamos Global Opportunities Composite, which is an actively managed composite primarily investing in a globally diversified portfolio of equity, convertible and fixed-income securities, with equal emphasis on capital appreciation and current income. The composite includes all fully discretionary fee-paying accounts, including those no longer with the firm. All returns are net of commission and other similar fees charged on securities transactions and include reinvestment of net realized gains and interest.

Fees include the investment advisory fee charge by Calamos Advisors LLC. Returns greater than 12 months are annualized. Chart Data Sources: BNY Mellon Analytical Services LLC and Calamos Advisors LLC.

The MSCI ACWI Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization weighted index that is designed to measure the equity market performance of developed and emerging markets. The index is calculated in both U.S. dollars and local currencies. Unmanaged index returns assume reinvestment of any and all distributions and do not reflect any fees, expenses, or sales charges. Investors cannot invest directly in an index.
