OVERVIEW

The fund invests in global convertible securities with the aim of balancing risk/reward while providing growth and income.

KEY FEATURES

- » Provides broadly diversified exposure to the global convertible bond universe.
- » Leverages more than 40 years of research in convertible security investing.
- » Seeks to provide participation in equity markets with less exposure to downside than an equity-only portfolio over a full market cycle
- » Blends global investment themes and fundamental research via active management
- » Takes environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors into account, evaluating whether they impact a company's cash flow, risk profile and long-term returns.

PORTFOLIO FIT

Consisting of convertible securities that can participate in upside equity movements with potentially limited downside exposure, the fund can provide a means to manage risk in conjunction with an equity allocation. The fund can also serve a role within a fixed-income allocation, as convertibles have performed well during periods of rising interest rates and inflation.

Calamos Active Management and Global Perspective Seek to Maximize the Potential Benefits of Convertibles

Defensive Equity. For more than 40 years, Calamos has advocated convertible securities for investors seeking upside participation in equity markets with less downside exposure than an equity-only portfolio over a full market cycle.

Enhanced Fixed Income. Convertibles can diversify fixed income and hedge the risk of rising rates.

Global Diversification. Because the opportunity sets differ across economies, global convertibles can provide improved prospects for alpha generation, downside protection and income.

A negative alpha shows that the performance was less than expected given the risk. Beta is a historic measure of a fund's relative volatility, which is one of the measures of risk; a beta of 0.5 reflects 1/2 the market's volatility as represented by the fund's primary benchmark, while a beta of 2.0 reflects twice the volatility. R-squared is a mathematical measure that describes how closely a security's movement reflects movements in a benchmark. Sharpe ratio is a calculation that reflects the reward per each unit of risk in a portfolio. The higher the ratio, the better the portfolio's risk-adjusted return is. Standard deviation is a measure of volatility.
